(Miss Betty Jo Reed)

Betty Jo Reed Is Mrs. Paul Buchanan, Jr.

Double-Ring Ceremony Takes Place At First Christian Church

Miss Betty Jo Reed became the bride of Paul Edward Buchanan, Jr., Aug. 26 at First Christian Church. Rev. Joseph E. Sutherland performed the double-ring ceremony at 2 p. m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde C. Reed, Route 1, Capri St. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Edward Buchanan, Sr., 506 Monte Vista Dr.

CHURCH DECORATIONS consisted of three baskets of white chrysanthemums, two seven-branch candelabra, one 15-branch candelabra, palms, a white aisle cloth and kneeling bench.

Wedding music was presented by Sammy Stuffle, organist, and Mrs. Judy Sells, vocalist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length A-line dress of white peau featuring a scoop neckline, elbow-length sleeves and a detachable chapel train with lace medallions.

The bodice and scalloped hemline were covered with lace medallions. Her shoulder-length veil of French illusion was attached to a cabbage rose and petals overlaid with lace.

SHE CARRIED a cascade bouquet of white gamellias and streamers tied in love knots.

Mrs. Marion Reed, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of orange acetate satin and crepe featuring a high-rise waistline and detachable train.

Her nose-tip veil of apricot illusion was attached to an orange satin bow. She carried a bouquet of orange chrysanthemums with moss green streamers.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Delores Gibson and Miss Sandra Wheatley. Their gowns and flowers were identical to those of the honor attendant.

John Allen Compton was best man. Ushers were Ronald Reed, brother of the bride, and Lester Gammon, cousin of the bridegroom.

FOLLOWING THE CEREMONY, a reception was held at the church. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Hazel Carswell, Mrs. Ruth Lawson, and Mrs. Malinda Lucas.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Betty Wilder and Mrs. Mary Kathryn Rich.

Mrs. Virginia Wolfe kept the bride's book.

For a wedding trip to Jeekyll Island, Ga., and Florida, the bride chose a navy sheath trimmed in white with the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The bride will reside in Kingsport while the bridegroom completes his studies at the University of Tennessee.

THE BRIDE was graduated from Ketrion High School and is employed by Hunter, Smith, Davis, Norris, Waddey, and Treadway, attorneys.

The bridegroom was graduated from Ketrion High School and is a transportation major at the University of Tennessee where he's a member of the Air Force ROTC, Air Force fraternity, and Delta Tau Delta Fraternity.

Pre-nuptial parties included a bridal shower given by Mrs. Hazel Carswell, Mrs. Ruth Lawson, Mrs. Betty Wilder, and Mrs. Mary Kathryn Rich.

A bridesmaids dinner was given at the home of the bride, and the rehearsal dinner was given by the parents of the bridegroom.

Linda K. McDavid Becomes Bride

Miss Linda Kaye McDavid became the bride of Charles C. Hobbs Sept. 9 at First Baptist Church of Gate City. The double-ring candlelight ceremony was performed at 8 p.m. by Rev. Bob D. Lynch.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McDavid, Gate City. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Estel Hobbs, Rt. 1, Gate City.

VOWS WERE exchanged before an altar decorated with floor-length gown. The sleeveless bodice and tube skirt of taffeta was topped by a long sleeved shift of chiffon. Her headpiece was a matching bow holding a nose-tip veil, and she carried a single long-stemmed pink rose tied with pink satin streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Stella Shoemaker and Miss Brownen Carter. Their gowns, veils, and flowers were identical to that of the honor attendant.
