

Sandra Wheatley Weds Thomas Buchanan

MRS. THOMAS BUCHANAN
(Miss Sandra Wheatley)

Miss Sandra Sue Wheatley became the bride of Thomas Ray Buchanan on April 18 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Basham in Frankfurt, Germany. The Rev. Everett Gerdis officiated at 1 p.m. A civil ceremony had been performed on Feb. 23 in Basil, Switzerland.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kyle B. Wheatley of 2809 Toddman St., Kingsport, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Edward Buchanan of Route 10.

Teen Preference

Teen-agers prefer rigid necklets instead of the regular necklaces. These come in silver or golden tones, in gold filled or sterling, dangling charms, momogrammed discs, butterflies, beating hearts, abstract mobiles, symbols and emblems of causes dear to their hearts.

The bride, given in marriage by Mr. Basham, wore a long white gown with capped sleeves and a high-collared neckline trimmed with lace around the collar, waist and sleeves. Mrs. Cheryl Noyes served as matron of honor.

Glen Martin served as best man.

A reception was given following the ceremony at the Basham home.

The bride attended East

Tennessee State University, where she was a member of the University and Chamber Choirs and of Phi Mu fraternity. The groom also attended East Tennessee State University and the University of Maryland. He's serving in the U. S. Air Force, stationed at Rhein Mein Air Force Base, Frankfurt.

The couple is making their home at 11 Bruckenstrasse, Morfelden, Germany.

