

C. R. Mellons Is Feted At Birthday Dinner

89 Guests Enjoy Affair Given
By Mrs. Mellons At Their Home Near Church Hill

Mrs. C. R. Mellons entertained recently at her home near Church Hill with a surprise birthday dinner given honoring Mr. Mellons, who was celebrating a birthday anniversary.

The honor guest, upon returning home from a visit to a friend, found 89 relatives and friends had gathered at his home to enjoy the day with him.

At noon a bountiful dinner was served picnic style and during the afternoon worship services were held with Rev. G. C. Coldiron of this city and Rev. C. J. Dale and Rev. James Martin of Church Hill conducting the services.

Among those enjoying the affair from Church Hill were Mrs. Edd Byington, Mrs. Josie Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Fain Simpson, Louise and Ruby Simpson, Patsy Simpson, Marvin Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brooks and son Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Martin, Marie Click, Velma Churchwell, Mr. and Mrs. I. Ratliff and daughter Phyllis Ann, Neal Ragie, C. J. Dale, Bob Walters, Mrs. Ellen Mann, W. E. Christian, Mrs. Mae Dale, John Christian, Mr. and Mrs. Carson Parker, Donald and Darold Parker, Mrs. Patton Parker, Mrs. Lee Whitlock, R. E. Whitlock, Velma Janice Betty Whitlock, Ilene Whitlock.

Those attending from Kingsport were Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Arnold, Mary and Sylvia Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Lum Light, Mrs. Florence Broyles, Miss Clara Broyles, Miss Jewel Carr, Mr. and Mrs. John Ball and son Harvey, Mrs. C. W. Agee, Mrs. Arlie Noe, Mrs. Mary Childress and son Gene, Tommy Sanders, Harry Mellons, Kenneth Rowland, Rev. G. C. Coldiron, Ellis Ward, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Dykes, Earl and Donald Dykes, Francis and Ina Sue Dykes, Betty Dykes and Mrs. Lochiel Mosley of Gate City, Va.

From Greeneville were: Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hensley, Mildred and Madge Hensley, B. L. Hensley, W. J. Hensley, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Agee, Jr. and daughter Nannie Bell, Mrs. John Barnes and children Billie Ray and Johnnie Barnes and Jack Begley.