

The Inter-Mountain

Glennadine Kettermann Auvil

Glennadine Kettermann Auvil

Glennadine Kettermann Auvil, 84, a resident of Elkins, departed this life Thursday morning, March 2, 2017, in Good Samaritan Hospital in Cincinnati, Ohio, after a brief illness.

She was born, Monday, May 30, 1932, at Elkins, a daughter of Glenn Whittier and Jessie J. Shreve Kettermann.

Her husband of 59 years, Dallas Auvil Jr. of Belington, preceded her in death.

Surviving are one daughter, Susan Ellen Auvil-Novak (Ron) of Westlake, Ohio; and two sons, Glenn Craig Auvil (Mary) of Simpsonville, South Carolina, and Dallas Gregory Auvil (Melissa) of Cincinnati, Ohio: two brothers, Randall Kettermann of Massachusetts, and her twin brother, Glenn Whittier Kettermann Jr. (Faye) of Elkins; two sisters, Mary Davis of Florida, and Patricia "Pat" Nestor of Elkins; seven grandchildren, Daniel, Betsy, Joy, Andy, Emily Sam and Nick; two great-grandchildren, John and Lilly; and several nieces and nephews.

Preceding her in death were one brother, James Franklin "Bus" Kettermann; and three sisters, Ruth Kettermann, Jean Cloninger and Joann Buchanan.

Glennadine graduated from Homestead High School in Florida with the class of 1950 and married Dallas on Aug. 16, 1953. A devoted mother and grandmother, she worked outside the home to help support her family. Glennadine had a passion for animals and flowers, enjoyed needlework and was an avid reader.

She also had a heart for women and children and for their benefit she built a women's center in Kabingo, Uganda that will be named in her honor.

A graveside service will be conducted Saturday, March 11, at 11 a.m. in Maplewood Cemetery at Elkins. The Rev. Dr. Basil A. Hensley will officiate, and interment will follow.

The family suggests that expressions of sympathy be in the form of contributions to Hope for Kabingo, P.O. Box 54744, Cincinnati, OH 45254 or West Virginia Caring, 169 Diamond St., Elkins, WV 26241 or the Randolph County Humane Society, P.O. Box 785, Elkins, WV 26241. Lohr & Barb Funeral Home of Elkins is in charge of the arrangements for Glennadine Kettermann Auvil. Condolences may be expressed to the family at www.lohrbarbfuneralhome.com.