

137 Divorce Cases Set For Chancery Court Term

The regular term of Chancery Court will open here Monday. The first week's docket includes 137 divorce cases — some old, some new, some contested, some uncontested.

After Chancellor Dayton E. Phillips sounds the docket, Monday will be taken up with cases carried over from previous terms of court. No cases are scheduled Tuesday—the day being held open for decisions not reached Monday.

Wednesday's schedule includes contested divorces. Thursday and Friday will be for uncontested and newly-filed divorces.

The second week of the term will be taken up with civil suits.

Here is this week's docket, as released by Mrs. H. F. Bowyer, clerk and master:
