

VOWS SAID IN CANDLELIGHT RITES

Miss Agee Weds Usif Lawson

Miss Linda Lou Agee and Usif Clay Lawson were married Feb. 5 at the Cedar View Methodist Church. Rev. W. R. Dillon performed the double-ring, candlelight ceremony at 7 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Agee Jr. of 508 Dillwyn St. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Lawson of Route 8, Kingsport.

Vows were exchanged amid decorations of baskets of white chrysanthemums, jade ferns, and a 15-branch candelabra, entwined with smilax, holding burning white tapers. Seven-branched candelabra stood on either side.

The family pews were marked with white satin bows, and a white aisle cloth was used.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Ann Flanary, organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, James N. Agee, wore a floor-length gown of white bridal satin. The Chantilly lace bodice featured a scalloped neckline and long pointed sleeves.

The detachable chapel train was held in place by a large satin bow at the waist. The three-tiered elbow-length veil of silk illusion was held in place by a crown of Chantilly lace, crystals, and seed pearls.

She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Miss Barbara Agee served her sister as maid of honor. Mrs. Juanita Mooney was matron of honor.

They wore floor-length gowns of red velvet styled with empire waistlines. Their headpieces were of matching red velvet, and they wore opera-length white gloves. They carried bouquets of gold and white carnations.

Rex Gardner served as best man. Gene Webb and Charles Mooney were ushers.

A reception was given by the bride's mother, at the home of James Agee. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Bettie Agee, Mrs. Gene Webb, and Mrs. Janie Halverson.

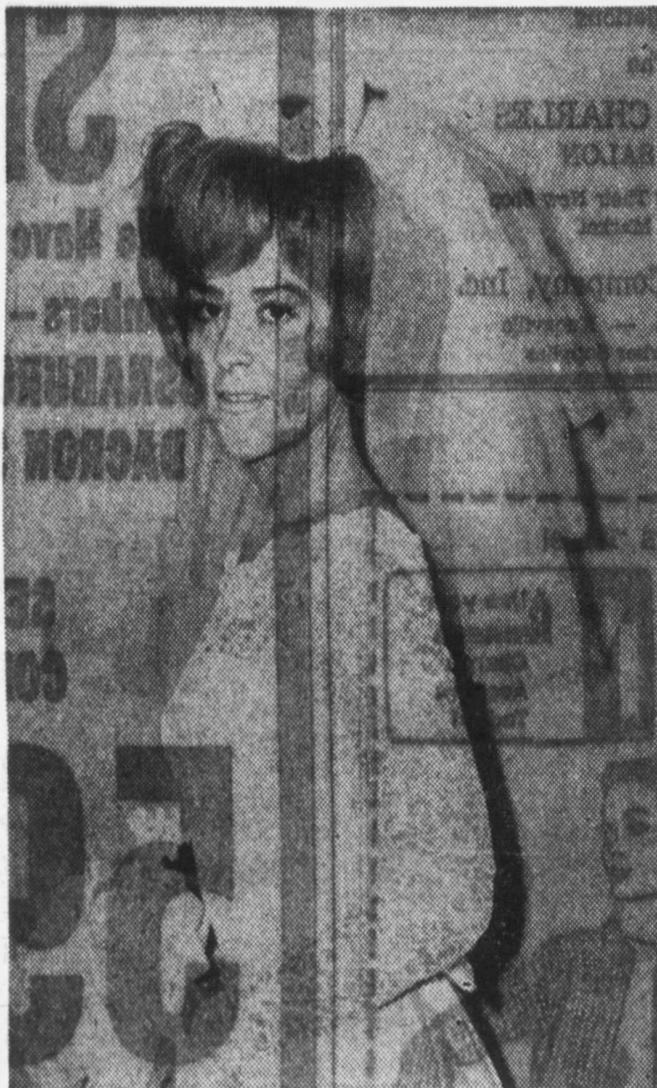

The bride's book was kept by Mrs. Brenda Parker.

For a wedding trip to Gatlinburg the bride wore a light blue knit suit, black accessories, and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The couple is at home at 580 Dillwyn St.

The bride was graduated from Lynn View High School and is employed as a secretary at Eastman Chemical Products, Inc.

The bridegroom attended Ketron High School and is employed by Latimer - Looney Chevrolet, Inc.
