

Regional Deaths

- Preston Gardner, Gray
- William Grubb, 89, Erwin
- Kathleen Harber, 63, Johnson City
- The Rev. James Jaynes, 75, Hampton

These obituaries may be read in today's edition of the Johnson City Press, or online at johnsoncitypress.com

Frances Spivey, The Bill Pat Tipton family were neighbors and special friends through the years and especially during Mr. Brickley's illness. The gentle care and kindness provided by Shirley Tipton, Cynthia Tipton Johnson, and Amber Tipton Spivey were exemplary. In addition to all these exceptional caregivers, the family would like to express their deep gratitude to nurse, Stephanie Jackson with Amedys Hospice for her professionalism and compassion toward Mr. Brickley and his family during his final hours.

An online guest register is available for the Brickley family at www.guestregister.com. Gate City Funeral Home is honored to be serving the family.

A. M. "Buster" Brown

KINGSFORT — A. M. "Buster" Brown, surrounded by family and friends, passed away peacefully at 4:30 p.m. Friday, Feb. 3, 2012.

He was born in Johnson City, Tenn., Dec. 25, 1928. Buster was a 1948 graduate of Dobyns Bennett High School, where he played right guard on the undefeated, untied and unscored upon State Championship Football Team. He was also a champion Golden Gloves boxer.

Buster received a Bachelor of Science degree from Michigan State University, Master of Arts from Sam Houston State University, Texas, and pursued post graduate studies in Public Safety at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

Buster was a veteran, serving in the United States Air Force as a Senior Medical and Surgical Technician.

Buster started his law enforcement career in 1950 and worked in police departments in Texas, Ohio, and Tennessee. He was a Criminal Investigator for the United States Treasury Department working enforcement in the Alcohol and Firearms Division. He served as the Chief Deputy & Criminal Investigator for the Sullivan County Sheriff's Department where he was shot in the line of duty. Buster served as the Law Enforcement Division Chairman, the Director of the Law Enforcement Academy and the Director of the Crime Lab at Walters State Community College in Morristown, Tenn., where he was instrumental in establishing the regional law enforcement training academy designated as a "Center of Excellence" for Criminal Justice Education by the Tennessee State Board of Regents of Colleges and Universities. He was a member of the Walters State Hall of Fame.

Buster was one of the founding members of the Kingsport 911 Board. He researched and established the Fallen Officers Memorial at Walters State.

In 2001, he designed and supervised the construction of the Kingsport Animal Shelter.

In 2006, Buster traveled to Mozambique, Africa where he helped build a medical clinic.

Buster was preceded in death by his parents, Frances Wise Brown and Cecil Brown; brother, Charlie Brown; and sister, Elsie Brown Grubb.

Brown

Buster is survived by his loving wife, Vivian Eversole Brown, four sons, David Brown, Jeff Brown, Dr. Steve Brown and wife, Michelle, Hal Brown, and daughter, Jamey Brown, all of Kingsport; his grandchildren, Kris Brown, Laura Brown, Adam Williams and wife, Hannah, Aaron Brown, and Patrick Brown; three great-grandchildren, Caleb, Kadence and Corbin; sisters, Mary Jane Starnes of Jonesboro, N.C. and Dottie Ford and husband, Robert of Plantation, Fla.; brother, Bob Brown and wife, Shirley of Spring Hill, Tenn.; brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law, Mark and Clay Briscoe of Gray, Tenn. and Joe and an Everette of Birmingham, Ala.; fifteen nieces and nephews.

The family will receive friends from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. today at Hamlett-Dobson Funeral Homes, Kingsport.

Services will follow at Hamlett-Dobson with Bud Hulsey officiating.

Interment will be in Oak Hill Memorial Park.

The Kingsport Police Department Honor Guard will be assisting the family.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorials be made in Buster's memory to Walters State Community College Foundation Criminal Justice Program, P. O. Box 1508, Morristown, Tenn. 37814.

Please visit www.hamlettdobson.com to leave an on-line condolence for the family.

Hamlett-Dobson Funeral Homes, Kingsport is serving the family of A. M. "Buster" Brown.

Lanta Davis Brown

KINGSFORT — Lanta Davis Brown, 81, of Kingsport, went to be with the Lord early Saturday morning at Wellmont Holston Valley Medical Center after a short illness.

"Cully" was a beloved Aunt and friend to all that knew her. She was a longtime member of Tabernacle Baptist Church in Kingsport where she taught the two year old children's Sunday School class for many years.

Lanta lived her entire life to serve the Lord and was an angel on this earth.

She was preceded in death by her first husband of over 40 years, Dale Davis; her second husband, William Brown, a brother, Clarence Farmer; brother-in-law, Ralph Davis; and her nieces, Jeanne Peters and Donna Rowland.

Brown

Lanta is survived by her sisters, Lea Lilley of Baltimore, Md., Janette Davis of Kingsport, and her nephew, Philip Davis (and wife Holly) of Kingsport.

Following cremation, a private memorial service for immediate family only will be held at Mountain Home National Cemetery in Johnson City.

Special thanks to Brother Cecil Sturdivant and the staff on the 3rd floor in Wilcox Hall for their care of Lanta.

In lieu of flowers, please make all donations to Tabernacle Baptist Church, P. O. Box 3100, Kingsport, Tenn. 37664.

Please visit www.hamlettdobson.com to leave an on-line condolence for the family.

Hamlett-Dobson Funeral Homes, Kingsport is serving the family of Lanta Davis Brown.

Hester Irene Doty

KINGSFORT — Hester Irene Doty, 78, of Kingsport, went to be with the Lord on Friday, Feb. 3, 2012.

She was a member of Pleasant View Baptist Church.

Hester was a loving mother, grandmother, sister, and aunt.

Her husband, Hartwell H. Doty, parents, Berton and Alta Morrison; and brother, Kermit Morrison preceded her in death.

Doty

Hester is survived by three sons, Don Doty and wife, Saul of Harrisburg, N. C., Jim Doty and wife, Barb of Aurora, Ill., and Harold Doty of Kingsport; one granddaughter, Charlotte Doty Bramlett of Concord, N.C.; one sister, Ruth Depew of Fall Branch; and a niece, Priscilla Depew of Fall Branch.

Services will be held at 1 p.m. today at Pleasant View Baptist Church with Pastor Wayne Baker, Rev. Bobby Sanders, and Rev. Chuck Grimm officiating.

Interment will follow at New Lebanon Baptist Church Cemetery in Greene Co.

Deacons of Pleasant View Baptist Church will serve as pallbearers.

Memorial contributions may be made to Pleasant View Baptist Church, c/o Broadcast Fund, 2101 Stadium Drive, Kingsport, Tenn. 37664.

Please visit www.hamlettdobson.com to leave an on-line condolence for the family.

Hamlett-Dobson Funeral Homes, Kingsport is serving the family of Hester Irene Doty.