BOOM, NOT PROSPERITY.

We commend the following from the Richmond Times to the attention of the business men of Southwest Virginia:

John Randolph once delivered a carefully prepared speech upon the text, "Change is not Reform." We are reminded by the accounts of large real estate transactions at advancing figures, now occurring in many places in this State, that a boom does not necessarily mean prosperity. On the contrary, such feverish excitement is inevitably followed up by a condition closely akin to collapse, and those energies of mind and money which might have been devoted to legitimate industrial enterprises, giving employment and creating wealth and laying the foundation for substantial values, having been perverted to mere speculation, based upon the expectancy of indusdustrial development by others, uncoil with deadly force, and often retard the accomplishment of that prosperity and solid value so earnestly longed for and so reasonably attainable.

We cannot too solemnly warn those men of character and substance, to whom is committed the leadership in laying out and developing the new towns and enterprises in our State, that a spirit of mere speculation should be as far as possible, severely checked and the truth insisted upon, that dealing in vacant lots is not building houses or shops or manufactories or making two blades of grass grow where one grew before. All the elements may be at hand for genuine, sober and successful development of wealth, and yet the speculative "eye in frenzy rolling" may discover an oasis which will prove as unsubstantial as a mirage in the desert.

EUPEPSY.

This is what you ought to have, in fact, you must have it, to fully enjoy life. Thousands are searching for it daily, and mourning because they find it not. Thousands upon thousands of dollars are spent annually by our people in the hope that they may attain this boon. And yet it may be had by all. We guarantee that Electric Bitters, if used according to directions and the use persisted in, will bring you Good Digestion and oust the demon Dyspepsia and install instead Eupepsy. We recommend Electric Bitters for Dyspepsia and all diseases of Liver, Stomach and Kidneys. Sold at 50c. and $1.00 per bottle by A. F. Hargrave, Druggist.

Many Lives, Histories, or Biographies of the late Jefferson Davis, purporting to be written by Mrs. Jefferson Davis, are being advertised throughout the country. The only genuine work of the kind written by Mrs. Jefferson Davis is that to be published by Belford Company, 18-22 East 18th street, New York, entitled "Jefferson Davis, Ex-President of the Confederate States: A Memoir, by His Wife." All other works claiming authorship of Mrs. Jefferson Davis must necessarily be injurious to her personally and pecuniarily. The book is sold by subscription, and territory is being rapidly assigned. The work promises to be one of the most popular ever published, and those desiring to canvass for it should apply at once to the publishers, who will furnish circulars and information

A Fact

WORTH knowing is that blood diseases which all other remedies fail to cure, yield to Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Fresh confirmation of this statement comes to hand daily. Even such deep-seated and stubborn complaints as Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout, and the like, are thoroughly eradicated by the use of this wonderful alterative.

Mrs. R. Irving Dodge, 110 West 125th street, New York, certifies:—

"About two years ago, after suffering for nearly two years from rheumatic gout, being able to walk only with great discomfort, and having tried various remedies, including mineral waters, without relief, I saw by an advertisement in a Chicago paper that a man had been relieved of this distressing complaint, after long suffering, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I then decided to make a trial of this medicine, and took it regularly for eight months. I am pleased to say that it effected a complete cure, and that I have since had no return of the disease."

Mrs. L. A. Stark, Nashua, N. H., writes: "One year ago I was taken ill with rheumatism, being confined to my house six months. I came out of the sickness very much debilitated, with no appetite, and my system disordered in every way. I commenced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla and began to improve at once, gaining in strength and soon recovering my usual health. I cannot say too much in praise of this well-known medicine."

"I have taken a great deal of medicine, but nothing has done me so much good as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I felt its beneficial effects before I had quite finished one bottle, and I can freely testify that it is the best blood-medicine I know of."—L. W. Ward, Sr., Woodland, Texas.

AGENTS WANTED FOR THE GREAT WAR STORY

SURRY —OF— Eagle's Nest

—BY— John Esten Cooke.

This thrilling historic story, which has been out of print, and for which there has been such a great demand is now issued as a SUBSCRIPTION BOOK, with many magnificent illustrations. There has never been a more popular book throughout the Southern States than "Surry of Eagle's Nest." Many years have passed since the thrilling scenes herein recounted of the deeds of valor of the Confederate Soldier, yet the interest, by those who fought with Ashby, Stuart, Johnston, Beauregard, Jackson and Lee, in the cause for which they so desperately and bravely battled, will never grow less. This thrilling story pictures not alone joy and sorrow, and a love sweetly told, but is filled with historic incidents of the great contest between the South and the North. Here is a book for the old Ex-Confederate, to recall to him the vivid scenes of the greatest Civil War ever known, to call back his own campaigns, and tell him of the mighty Chieftains dear to the memory of every one who wore the Gray.

"Surry of Eagle's Nest" will find a welcome in every Southern home. That it may be within the reach of every one, it is published at the LOW PRICE OF $3, though a LARGE, HANDSOME VOLUME, BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED AND ELEGANTLY BOUND.

SOLD ONLY BY SUBSCRIPTION.

As the demand for this OLD FAVORITE BOOK which has been out of print so long, will be large, and applications for agencies very numerous, all who desire to act as Agents should write for terms and quickly secure choice of territory.
